The muddy water still prevails, and with the recurrent rains it seems highly improbable that any clearing may be looked for within a few days. Consequently, the ardent fisherman who is despoiled of his sport may only turn to his well-loved tackle box and muse on the glories of past days. his well-loved tackle bo the glories of past days.

The real fisherman, who makes an art of the science, keeps an up-to-date fishing journal—truly. Not for self-giorification or the sole edification of his friends, nor yet as a record of slaughter, but when the frozen months come, in his cozy den he may pore over the pages and in happy memory dwell once more in the sunlit days when the sparkling waters gave up their meed to him.

The record tells of the day's catch, of what particular pool the prize reluctantly left, how the sun was either the sun was indulgently the sun hiding behind a lowering cloud; what bait the fish took, who was along, what the hour was, and the weight of the fish, and any more data which will serve to refresh a memory only too prone to give up its treasures in a rosy light.

There is nothing better for the weary business man who has striven for days on end in the hum-drum roll of his office, to go out on the river. It really matters little whether a stupendous catch is made. "The play's the thing," and the wholesome draughts of fresh air in the city-seared lungs will send a recuperating glow through the entire system, freshen the mind and serve to dull the rough edges of trials and tribulations.

Soft, Fluffy Hair Aids Beauty and Personality

Girls and women of all ages want to selves to the floor when attempts were it's their birthright-but stringy, thin nade to carry them out of the court- and lifeless hair destroys half the beauty of a pretty face.

If your hair is not beautiful, is falling out, streaky, full of dandruff, too dry, or if the scalp itches and burns, use Parisian Sage. Rub it well into the scalp. It will go right to the hair roots, nourish them, and stimulate the hair to grow strong and luxuriant. Parisian Sage removes dandruff with one application and cleanses the hair of dirt. dust and excessive oil. It will cool and invigorate the scalp and make the hair doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage is a scientifically made preparation that gives the hair just what is needed to make it soft, fluffy thick and gloriously radiant. It is delicately perfumed; is inexpensive, and can be had at all drug and tollet countor from O'Donnell's Drug Store .-

The story of James Montgomery's farctwhich Queen Mary of England thinks is one of the most charming plays she has ever seen—revolves about the work of a young premoter, Stephen Baird, who is forced to make an impression on his prospective customers and uses counterfeit money for the purpose. He doesn't intend to spend the money or de anything with it except exhibit it. But, of course, what actually happens makes the play and no mere story of it would begin to fell its complications or the clever manuer in which the author has accomplished the purpose he sets out to accomplish Mr. Buhler will be seen as Stephen Baird and Miss Jewel will be Grace Tyler, the young woman who becomes the inspiration of the promoter. hibition of a big roll of banknotes is Tomorrow will bring the second in-tallment of the big features provided for the entertainment of patrons of the Cosmos Theater, headed by Slayman's famous troupe of Arabs. The newcomers will be headed by Mile. Peyrani and her collection of hirds Peyrani and her collection of birds and dogs in various feats and exercises. Klein, Abe, and Nicholson, a clever musical comedy trio, and Conlin and Ward, with comedy songs and snappy repartee, will be other features, with Baby Grace as a monologist and songstress. There will a change of program of the film features, beginning with the matinees tomorrow. The usual fine orchestral program will be a feature at the Sunday concerts from 3 to 10:30 p. m. The management of Crandall's Theate.

The management of Crandali's Theater announces seven features for next week, supplementing each day's main attraction with the usual run of first-time shown photoplays. On Sunday Francis X. Bushman will be seen in "Night Hawks." Monday, in the main attraction, "The Good-For-Nothing." G. M. Anderson will appear as a modern young man, without his usual cowboy make-up. The principal picture Tuesday will be "King of the Beggara." Wednesday will be seen "Escaped from Siberia." Friday's feature is "When London Burned" or "Old St. Paul's," adapted from Harrison Ainsworth's novel. The Saturday performance will be headed with "The Bird of Prey."

Municipal Stores of Hongkong Raise $200,000 to Change Business Methods.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 8.—Convince hat the American way of doing business is the better way, three of the municipal department stores of Hongkong, acting with Sing Chong' & Co., of San Francisco, have raised $200,000 with which to make a change in the method of doing business with American manufacturers. The three Hongkong enterprises involved are Sincoro & Co., the Sun Company, and Cheng Kwong

Co.

Since the Chinese revolution their business in American goods, such as clothing, and shoes, has registered an enormous increase. They have been buying through agents of various American, German, and British manufacturers, the agents getting a commission.

The combination is also planning to establish branches in New York and elsewhere to extend the trade in the United States in silk, silverware, blackwood furniture, embroidery, jewelry, and percelain.
